

Explore Faith and Life at Greenbank

Welcome to our autumn programme of opportunities to delve deeper and to explore faith in the company of others and in your own time.

We hope you'll feel welcome to be part of anything that appeals to you.

Why not try something a bit different, and see where God leads you?

We are offering anyone interested a selection of approaches to explore contemplative worship. We will start with a short teaching session, give everyone a chance to identify problems or difficulties, have a short break and then offer some guided practice. We'll be looking at using bible reading for prayer, imagining being involved in biblical scenes, using images as a way into prayer, experiencing Christian meditation and learning how to recognise God in our everyday lives.

From this collection, on 7th November we'll discuss The Blue Cross, on 14th November The Eye of Apollo, and on 21st November The Hammer of God. Contact Steve Chaffee for more information.

Advent Home Groups

from 3rd December

In weeks beginning 3rd, 10th & 17th December.

During the Season of Advent we'll be offering the chance to join a number of small groups meeting in homes across the parish and hosted by members of the congregation. These relaxed groups will focus on the compelling and accessible book, The First Christmas, by Marcus Borg and John Dominic Crossan. It explores the Christmas story in all its rich layers – not just shepherds and angels, but a lot more besides!

During the weeks of Advent, there will be groups on Monday to Thursday evenings, and a daytime group at the church on Wednesday afternoon at 2pm.

Details will be on the Greenbank website in the Autumn.

Exploring Faith, Baptism and Confirmation

Spring 2019

Sunday evenings in the Spring

In the Spring we'll begin a series of evenings designed to allow you to explore faith towards making a commitment to Christ. If you've never been baptised, then this could be the outcome of the programme. If you've been baptised before, then Confirmation or Profession of Faith would be the next public step. These evenings will explore the big questions of faith, some of the key ways in which the Church has come to respond to them over the centuries, and what it all means for us today.

Details will be on the Greenbank website in 2019.
